Subject: FW: Need speaker for CDA Homeless Forum 7-30-15
Date: Thursday, July 23, 2015 8:44:20 AM

Hi friends,

As you know, I have been trying to find the right speaker for the first section on our agenda entitled "Snapshot: State of Homelessness in CA."

I reached out to the head of the US Interagency Council on Homelessness, because I was having a hard time getting a response from the west coast staff for USICH. Here is his reply – and what is interesting is that there hasn't been an integrated analysis yet of state or national trends from the January PIT count.

Sooo, I have an idea.

How bout at the beginning of the meeting – we have 20 minutes allocated to this "snapshot" portion – we have each of the cities represented share what they know about their region's PIT numbers. I'll capture that data on white paper – and we also can have them identify the top one or two issues of concern that they are dealing with right now. This way, we do our own analysis of the trends and issues in the state right now, and we give everyone an opportunity to introduce themselves and ensure their key issue is memorialized on the wall.

Thoughts?
Kerry

Hi Kerry – sorry for slow reply, I have been thinking about this – and sorry that we have no one available to participate. If you end up in a complete bind, we could see if phone/skype participation were possible? I will note that no national PIT data from 2015 is available yet, nor is there rolled up data by states available yet.

From the LA HUD office, you could check with Bill Vasquez, the Community Planning and Development director -

213-534-2555	William.G.Vasquez@hud.gov
--------------	--

You could also check with Cindy Cavanaugh at the CA State Department of Housing and Community Development?

Cindy.Cavanaugh@hcd.ca.gov

Or perhaps LAHSA has already done some comparative analysis of LA's numbers with other CA communities? I know Peter was trying to identify trends elsewhere, but don't know how far down the path they've taken that?

I hope those ideas help?

Matthew

Hi Matthew – hope you’re well!

I am on a team organizing a special summit – which is next week, July 30 at LAX – for all the business improvement districts in CA. Many of us are experiencing increased homelessness, and seeing evidence of some of the unintended consequences of prison realignment and Prop 47, among other things. We also wanted to bring the BIDs together to come up with a proactive strategy for the business community in the event that the Right to Rest Act returns.

We have put together a great day of speakers on the topic of mental health reform, affordable housing, Prop 47, how BIDs can engage, etc.

<http://californiadowntown.com/homeless-forum/>

I need someone at the beginning of the session to give a snapshot of where we are nationally and in the state with homelessness. Especially with respect to the state of CA, now that the numbers have all been published, we want someone to discuss trends in the state (e.g., is everyone experiencing the same uptick as LA, for example).

I had reached out to a couple of your colleagues – Katy Miller and Amy Sawyer – but I think they are unable to attend. I’m wondering if you have any other thoughts as to someone (even at the HUD level) who might be able to offer this impartial assessment.

Here is a draft of the agenda we’ve prepared for that day with this open section in yellow.

Many thanks!

| 10 a.m. | I. | Welcome – Lauren Schlau, Chair, CA Downtown Association |
| | II. | Introductions and Purpose of Session – Kerry Morrison, Hollywood Property Owners Alliance
Purpose of the Session
How business improvement districts respond to issues related to homelessness is rapidly evolving. Where response heretofore was guided by public safety goals, increasingly BID’s find themselves balancing the quality of life needs of both the community (residents, businesses, visitors) and individuals who find themselves homeless in the community. The purpose of the CDA session is to achieve a “reframing” of this issue for BIDs. Further, the intent is to equip BIDs to understand where they can play a constructive role in advocating for public policy, regulatory or systemic changes at the state and local level to improve the quality of life for all in their districts and to support the national vision of ending homelessness. |
